dear congregation

Children among us are a gift. We welcome all children in the fullness and beauty of who they are and celebrate their sounds, complexities, and curiosities. The presence of children reminds us that our church is growing, and we embrace them as Jesus did, saying, "let the children come to me."

dear parents

Cultivating the well-being of children is a priority at the heart of our congregation. During our child dedications, we covenant to "teach them the stories of Jesus, and sing for them the songs of faith, so that in their own time, they accept Jesus as their own." Doing so is a gift to parents, children, and church alike!

dear children

We are SO glad you are here! We want to get to know you and learn more about who God is through you and your special and unique connection to the living God.
