What factors allow human trafficking to occur?

- Basic insecurities creating vulnerability
- Demand behaviors
- Impact of social media
- Gang culture
- Easy access to illicit and prescription drugs

What is allowing human trafficking to flourish?

- Low risk with high returns
- Impact of social media
 - Sexualizing society
 - Igniting demand behaviors
 - Defining the 'good' life
 - Allowing anonymous behavior and isolation
- Weakening of family unit
- Drive for higher and higher profits
- Consumer desire for low cost products

Vulnerability Factors

- Age is primary – female age 12 to 14
- Abuse at home
- Drug use by caregivers
- Homelessness
- Running away from home
- Involvement with juvenile justice system
- At-risk behaviors, including gang activity, underage drinking and substance abuse
- Lacking in life skills
- Being bullied

Recruiting Techniques: Force, Fraud, Coercion

- Offer to fulfill basic needs
 - Food
 - Shelter
 - “Family”/belonging
- False promises
 - A good job
 - Educational and other opportunities
 - Love and romance
 - Higher purpose (radicalization)
- Use of Force
 - Violence/ Kidnapping

Emerging Priority Factors

- Family conflict; poor family management
- Out-of-home placement
- Poor connectedness to school
- Teenaged parenting

Bible Study Meeting Joseph

One lesson focusing upon a journey of hope through four themes:

Beloved Betrayed Bewildered Beginning Again

Bible Study – Meeting Joseph

The story of Joseph is found in the book of Genesis, from Ch 37 through to Ch 50. Joseph's saga is integral to the overall narrative of the Israelite's descent into Egypt and is one of the most expansive, layered and elaborate stories in the Torah. The extensive coverage (14 chapters!) follows Joseph's progression from favoured son and dream interpreting shepherd to his prominence as Minister of Egypt.

From the beginning, in Ch 37, we are straightaway introduced to Joseph as Jacob's favoured son. Vs 3: "Jacob loved Joseph more than all his sons since he was a child of his old age". Joseph begins life basking in the love and devotion of his Father. But this favouritism, along with his talent for interpreting dreams, when combined with Joseph's immature & ensuing behaviour (Genesis 37:2 & 37:5-11) raised the destructive jealousy we see enacted in the brothers.

It doesn't take long for the brothers to act up. It's easy to imagine them sitting around in the shepherding fields, disgruntled by their shared experience of jealousy. The compounded jealousy bubbles up into action and - on seeing Joseph the dreamer appear in the distance - they ambush the unsuspecting favoured brother and throw him into a pit. They soon sell him to Midianite merchants on their journey to Egypt who in turn sell him on to Potiphar and into servitude. It's here that we connect with the theme of Joseph as a victim of human trafficking and slavery.

For the brothers, betrayal begets deceit. The coat belonging to the favoured son is torn apart, dipped into goat's blood and presented to their Father Jacob as evidence of his son's death. Sin compounded by sin.

This epic story contains so many classic themes: Calling. Favour. Jealousy. Despair. Determination. Courage. Relief. Forgiveness. Redemption and Reconciliation.

[For those who want to explore the text further, this story falls into the theory of the "Genesis triangle" which plays itself out right through Genesis - Abel/Cain : Abraham/Lot : Sarah/Hagar : Jacob/Esau : Joseph and his brothers. Favouritism - Jealousy - Reconciliation. A dominant theme where God's action through his people demonstrates the triumph of reconciliation over the needs of the human ego and self.]

Joseph's journey is a rich tapestry, mimicking - to lesser and greater degrees - life as many of us experience it. His life is a series of highs and lows, moving between the highs of favouritism and unconditional love through to the lows of victimhood and betrayal; through the bewildering experience of forced servitude, false accusation and imprisonment back to the highs of restoration, renewal and reconciliation.

As we observe Joseph, we can make links between the experiences of the characters in the story and our own experiences. In this bible study, we also attempt to examine the plight of those who currently live through and experience the heinous crime of trafficking and modern day slavery and we seek to reflect on our own willingness to engage with their plight.

The Hebrew scholar, Yoram Hazony, makes this point: "The bottom line is that the Bible introduces hope into human political affairs. What it does is it takes the individual, empowers that individual and says "Somewhere above you, there is a transcendent God who is not controlled by the King or by the Priests or

Prayer Guide for Victims of Human Trafficking

Prayer for Victims of Human Trafficking

Heavenly Father,

We, your children, trust your words in Mathew 11:28: "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest."

We pray for the liberation of victims who are in bondage to all the various types of Modern Slavery. They want to be free of their bondage, but they are helpless. They are crying out for someone to help them – who can bring freedom in their lives. Please bring freedom to these slaves in the world. Nothing is impossible to you Father, Remove the chains of their oppression. Let the oppressors understand what is just and let them repent for their unjust actions.

Dear Lord, we thank you for your grace as you have provided us everything we need. But we pray for those who are not having enough food, clothes, shelter or means to pay for other necessities. Father, give us generous hearts to share our blessings with those who are in need. Help us to understand their needs. Soften our hearts with compassion to help them joyfully.

Lord, you are the strongest tower and mighty shelter. We are safe in you. We thank you for those of your children who have been rescued. Bless your people who worked for their rescue. Bless the children who are experiencing freedom. Please heal the physical and mental wounds of these children. Let them feel that they are equally important in your sight. Let not anyone harm them. Make them safe and let them feel safe and secure.

Dear Lord, each morning we experience your love, joy, kindness and hope. We thank you for all these. We pray for our brothers and sisters who have experienced the darkness of life. Make us a channel to show your love and care for them. Help them to understand that you offer a new joyful life if they will come to you. Help us to counsel and support them so that they can firmly sustain their new life.

Lord, each life is precious in your sight. Dear Lord, restore the joy of life to those who became victims of human trafficking. Provide them enough resources to rebuild and reshape their lives. May we rejoice in you always.

Dear Lord, you are the One who rescues from every kind of slavery. You are the Saviour who forgives us all our sins and make us a new creation. Lord you are the potter and we are the clay. Mould and shape us to become a witness to that new creation so that others may also seek and experience that life as a new creation.

Dear Lord, you are the Lord of Justice. You love those who walk on the path of justice. We pray for your people who deal with traffickers. Give your wisdom, knowledge and strength to handle the traffickers while investigating them. Give them courage to fight against the wrong. Show them the way to achieve justice for those who have been so wrongly treated. At the same time we pray for the survivors. Protect them from all harm. Give them courage to face their former traffickers and their past experiences. We pray for the people and organizations who are working to assist them to become more than a victim or survivor, but a person who is thriving.

Heavenly Father, we pray for the various governments, civil society organisations and especially the churches and for the people who are involved in this noble task to bring an end of Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking. We pray that all authorities at every level may be supportive, resistant to corruption and bribery and join their hands for the betterment of the survivors. Lord helps us to provide them with a good space in a loving environment, so they can live freely and happily and they can find resources for their rehabilitation.

Dear God, as children of you, give us new insight to bring these lives who have suffered so much darkness into Your Light. May we be able to stand in unity, as a Church, with them for their freedom and justice.

Heavenly Father, here our cries as we reach up to you.

PRAYER GUIDE

Life 107 Ministries believes in prayer. What can you do? Your prayers are crucial in the fight against sex trafficking. This prayer guide can be used in many ways. There are six categories: 1) pray for one category per day, for six days 2) pray for each category daily, using one of the suggested prayer points 3) pray for each category for one week, praying for six weeks.

PRAY FOR VICTIMS

Who are the victims?

Average age of recruitment in the USA is 12-14
Many are runaways from sexual abuse and/ or violence in the home
Under coercion, fraud, physical violence, threats and manipulation
Isolated, afraid, and vulnerable

"Blessed is he whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the Lord his God, who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, who keeps faith forever; who executes justice for the oppressed, who gives food to the hungry. The Lord sets the prisoners free; the Lord opens the eyes of the blind." Psalm 146: 5-8a

- Pray for resources, shelter, clothing, food, safety, and protection
- Pray that victims will have hope for restoration of lives, bodies, and spirit
- Pray for insightful law enforcement and counselors and mentors to enter their lives

PRAY FOR TRAFFICKERS AND PERPETRATORS

Then Isaiah is so bold as to say, "I have been found by those who did not seek me; I have shown myself to those who did not ask for me." Romans 10:20

- Pray for restraint and discovery of evil activities, recognition of sin, and godly sorrow
- Pray for hearts of repentance and a heart to hear God's Word
- Pray for Christian men to have a heart and a calling to minister to those involved in exploiting women

PRAY FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT

"Give justice to the weak and the fatherless; maintain the right of the afflicted and the destitute. Rescue the weak and the needy; deliver them from the hand of the wicked." Psalm 82: 3-4

- Pray for protection as they dedicate their lives to justice

- Pray for victims to be recognized as women in need instead of as criminals and for law enforcement to administer mercy as well as justice
- Pray for wisdom and discernment in seeking out perpetrators and traffickers and that evil will not prevail

PRAY FOR LIFE 107 MINISTRIES

"For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, 'For this very purpose I have raised you up, that I might show my power in you, and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth.'" Romans 9:17

- Pray for adequate funding for the services we provide to women trapped in prostitution and sex trafficking in the USA
- Pray for Life 107 Ministries' Board members and supervisors to have discernment and wisdom in leadership efforts
- Pray for God's direction as we seek out new efforts and continue to make a difference in the lives of hurting women

PRAY FOR WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA

"Truly, I tell you, whatever you did for the least of these my brothers and sisters, you did it for me" Matthew 25:40

- Pray that individuals in Western North Carolina will offer their personal resources in the fight against sex trafficking in the USA
- Pray for cooperative spirits in working together to eradicate sex trafficking in America.
- Pray that God will raise up more volunteers in the fight against sex trafficking and for the hearts of women trapped under this oppressive exploitation.

PRAY FOR LIFE 107 MINISTRIES' VOLUNTEERS

"Let us not grow weary in doing good, for in due season, we will reap a harvest if we do not give up." Galatians 6:9

- Pray for the Holy Spirit to move in a powerful way in the ministry of Life 107 volunteers
- Pray for hearts of love and mercy for the women we serve, and for discernment and wisdom as we mentor ladies involved in the commercial sex industry
- Pray for spiritual and physical protection and renewal of spirits to not give up in this difficult fight
